

Environmental Toxicology

Lawrence K. Duffy, 246 WRRB, lkduffy@alaska.edu, 474-7525

Instructor:

Students are encouraged to contact the Office Hours

Monday and Thursday following lectures. However, st

Lecture: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11:30 am - 1:00 pm, Murie 103

Textbook: Fundamentals of Ecotoxicology 4th Edition (ISBN 978-14-666-58-2293) by Michael C Newman,

Course Description: This is a core course which uses the state-of-the-art of environmental and ecotoxicology and

Learning Outcomes:

- increase understanding of biochemistry with respect to environmental contaminants
- increase understanding of the chemical-biotic interactions
- central theme in the diverse ecosystems

Student

gain an understanding of how biota alters the structure and dynamics of
of the North

Course Goals:

provide the basic foundation for environmental toxicology

Take courses

Instructional Methods:

points to present 4.5 minutes for questions) will count as 100 or 200

Orals:

The oral presentations (10-15 minutes each) = 10

Language for Syllabi

The Board of Regents have clearly stated in BOP Policy that discrimination in any form including but not limited to

by contacting the IAF Health & Counseling

1) You may access confidential counseling by Police Department at

3) You may file a criminal complaint by contacting the University

